Your Privacy

At TLP, we are committed to maintaining the trust and confidence of all the visitors to our website. In particular, we want to convey to you categorically that we have no interest in selling, renting or trading email lists with other companies and businesses for marketing purposes.

We just won't do it. However, to instill additional confidence, in this Privacy Policy we've provided lots of detailed information on when and why we collect your personal information, how we use it, the limited conditions under which we may disclose it to others and how it is kept secure.

Collection and use of Personal Information:

Personal Information means any information that may be used to identify you, such as your name, title, phone number, email address. In general you browse our website without providing us with any personal information.

We may use products to analyse web traffic to this website in order to understand our visitors' needs and to continually improve our site for them. We collect only anonymous, aggregate statistics. For example we do not tie a specific visit to a specific IP address. However, there are additional options on our site that require you to be registered.

For example, to receive product updates, news bulletins or to enter any of our competitions. As part of the registration process we collect personal information. We use that information for the following purposes: to inform you about items you've asked us to tell you about; to contact you if we need to obtain or provide additional information; to check our records are correct and to check every now and again that you are satisfied and happy with everything.

Children and Privacy:

If you're aged 13 or under you need to get permission to register on our site from your parents or guardian.

Use of Cookies

A cookie is a small text file containing information that website transfers to your computer's hard disk for record-keeping purposes and allows us to analyse our site traffic patterns, ostensibly which pages work and those which do not.

A cookie cannot provide access to your computer or to information beyond what you provide to us. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you disable cookies you can still view the publicly available information on our website. If you are using a shared computer and you have cookies turned on, be sure to log off when you finish browsing.

Links to other websites:

Our website contains links to information on other websites. On websites we do not control, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information that you provide whilst visiting those sites. Those sites are not governed this Privacy Policy, and if you have questions about how a site uses your information you will need to check directly with each website's privacy statement.

Access to Your Personal Information:

You are entitled to access the personal information that we retain on you.
Email your request to: Info@Kadodepepper.co.uk

Updating Your Personal Information And Unsubscribing:
